ISSUE NO. 102

THUL QA'DAH 1442/JUNE 2021

ANOTHER SEASON FOR OBEDIENCE

There are four months in the Islamic calendar that have been sanctified and recorded as sacred in the Glorious Qur'aan. Three are the consecutive months of Thul Qa'dah (the eleventh month of the Islamic lunar calendar), Thul Hijjah (the twelfth) and Muharram (the first) while Rajab (the seventh month) stands alone. The three main characteristics of the sacred months are:

1. They were singled out by Allah Ta'ala as sacred and thus undoubtedly and unquestionably have special significance.
2. It is forbidden to initiate warfare during these periods and it is therefore the ideal time to mend broken relationships and join family ties.
3. Our deeds, good and bad, carry more weight during the sacred months.

Since this is the season that Allah Almighty has favoured us with, we should immerse ourselves deeply and sincerely in supplication which is the essence of worship. Acceptance of duas we are aware, is conditional upon abstention from Haraam. When our beloved Prophet sallallahu alayhi wa sallam was asked about what one could do for Salvation he replied: “Consume Halal and speak the truth”.
