ISSUE NO. 96

JUMADA AL AWWAL 1442/DECEMBER 2020

HALAAL ON VACATION

Our Imaan never takes a vacation so why should our Halaal issues.

The risk profile of consuming Haraam albeit inadvertently is highest at this time of the year. With the joy of school holidays, year-end functions, dining out, shopping expeditions and travel, complacency can creep in.

Be very wary of claims such as “Halaal Friendly”, “Our chicken is Halaal”, “Our meat is purchased from a Halaal butcher,” display of a fraudulent Halaal certificate or the old ploy of the prominent display of framed Islamic inscriptions. Also avoid places that serve alcohol.

Our duas for your safety of good health, travel, prosperity and peace, Aameen.
